

Overview

Management skills for today's Service, Communications and Technology sectors are rigorous and demanding. New skills are needed to achieve overall objectives; but these skills do not come naturally - they need to be learned.

This course helps you to understand and learn them. After three days, you will have the professionalism to put them into practice.

This focused and highly researched course is very participative and provides delegates with guidance on how they can develop key skills needed when they move into a managerial role.

The course is designed to be as practical as possible. The format includes individual and group practice, role-play and input from the course leader.

On Completion Delegates Will Be Able To

- Identify the key elements of management
- Understand the importance of clear communication to the effective manager
 - Develop skills and techniques to manage people more professionally
